CORINNE CHAPELLE

CORINNE CHAPELLE, violin

Hailed by Sir Yehudi Menuhin: "One of the greatest talents of her generation", violinist Corinne Chapelle started her studies as a two-year-old and gave her first concert only a year later. Her talent was nurtured at leading music schools - she studied with Yehudi Menuhin at his school in London, following which she studied at the Juilliard School of Music and joined Pinchas Zukerman's class in New York. These studies were further complimented by working with such pedagogues as Ana Chumachenko, Lorand Fenyves and Josef Gingold.

Corinne has received various awards at international violin competitions including the Jascha Heifetz Violin Award and the Montreal International Violin Competition.

Both as a soloist and chamber musician, Corinne has already made an impressive international career. She has represented the United States around the world as an International Ambassador of Music, appearing at the Senate Caucus in Washington, D.C. and premiering the Barber Violin Concerto in China. Recently, Corinne has performed with orchestras such as the Montreal Symphony Orchestra, Pacific Symphony, Salzburg Mozarteum Orchestra, Cologne Chamber Orchestra, Haydn Philharmonie, Prague Chamber Orchestra, Polish Radio Chamber Orchestra "Amadeus", as well as the Shanghai and Beijing Philharmonics. She has also performed in many of the world's leading concert halls, such as the Théâtre des Champs-Élysées in Paris, the Mozarteum in Salzburg, the Kölner Philharmonie, the Haydn Saal at the Esterházy Palace, the Prinzregententheater in Munich and the Great Hall of Zurich's Tonhalle.

As well as appearing internationally on television and radio, Corinne has been featured on recordings for Naxos, JPC and Guild Music.
